PERKINS

PRODUCTION

PHOTO · VIDEO · DESIGN

FOR MARK LYNCH

A FEW QUESTIONS

So the sites come out sounding like Walker's and Dulany's instead of sounding like everybody else.

> Answer whatever you can and skip anything that does not apply. A one line answer is fine, and so is "I don't know yet." Nothing in here is a test.
>
> Print it and write on it, type into it, or just reply to my email with the numbers. Whatever is easiest. The ones that actually hold up the build are 1, 14, 15, and 21.

PART ONE

THE BASICS

Quick facts I need right, and one thing your current site has wrong.

1 Dulany's full street address.

Your site currently shows Walker's address on the Dulany's page, so I do not want to guess at this one.

2 Each venue's name exactly how you want it written.

Walker's Overlook or Walkers Overlook? Dulany's spelling trips people up, including the transcription software.

3 Phone number and email for each venue. Same for both, or different?

4 Besides you, who should see the drafts before they go live?

PART TWO

THE LOOK

I pulled five for you to react to, so you do not have to go hunting.

5 Take a look at these five and tell me which feel right.

Each one opens a different way: with the land, with a mood, with a couple, or with film. They are different on purpose, so even "none of them" tells me something.

A Blackberry Farm, Tennessee

blackberryfarm.com

Leads with the land. A hillside at golden hour, quiet type, lots of room. A luxury resort, so think of it as the high bar.

B Standing Rock Farms, Ohio

standingrockfarms.com

Leads with a mood. A barn venue like yours, opening on soft close-up details. Gentle and romantic.

C Mountain House Estate, California

mountainhouseestate.com

Leads with a real couple at the venue. Closest to what your photographers' wedding shots would look like up top.

D Walker's Overlook, the one I built perkinsproduction.com/concepts/overlooks/walkers-farm.html

Leads with film that moves as you scroll. Try it on your phone.

E Dulany's Overlook, the one I built perkinsproduction.com/concepts/overlooks/dulanys-farm.html

Same idea as Walker's, with its own colors and its own feel.

☐ A ☐ B ☐ C ☐ D ☐ E ☐ None of them

6 Find any others on your own, or see anything you hated? Paste the links.

It does not have to be a wedding venue. And the ones you hated are honestly as useful to me as the ones you liked.

7 Should the two farms feel related, or completely unrelated?

☐ Like cousins ☐ Totally separate brands ☐ Not sure yet

8 Three words for how Walker's should feel. Then three for Dulany's.

PART THREE

THE TWO FARMS

The stuff you say out loud on a tour that never makes it onto a website.

9 A couple is deciding between Walker's and Dulany's. What do you tell them?

However you actually say it on the phone. I would rather have your words than write my own.

10 What do couples ask you most often before they book?

11 You mentioned physical improvements at Walker's. What has changed, and is it finished?

If it is new, it should be on the site, and it may be worth photographing.

12 Eight coordinators who do everything. How do you want that described, and should any of them be named?

Reviewers rave about Holly in particular. That is worth saying out loud.

13 Anything a couple gets at your farms that they would not get down the road?

PART FOUR

THE PHOTOGRAPHS

This is the part that decides how good the sites can look.

14 Which photographers are contributing, and what are their email addresses?

I will write to each of them myself if that is easier for you. Every one of them gets credit on the site, which is usually why they say yes.

15 What form will the photos arrive in?

Full size original files work best. Images saved off a gallery site are often too small for a full screen, so it helps to know early.

☐ Original files ☐ Dropbox or Drive ☐ Off a gallery site ☐ Not sure

16 Any photos that must not be used?

Couples who asked for privacy, a vendor you no longer work with, a part of the property that has changed.

17 Do you have drone footage or photos of either farm from the air?

☐ Yes ☐ No ☐ Not sure

PART FIVE

LOGOS AND PRICING

You said you never really landed on a logo. Let's land on one.

18 Anything you already use that has to stay? Colors, a typeface, a mark on your signs?

19 You said you played with logos for a while. What did you try that did not work?

20 Should pricing be published on the sites, or available on request?

Published pricing means fewer tire kicker calls and better qualified tours. It is your call and I will build it either way.

☐ Publish it ☐ On request only ☐ Starting at prices

21 Are the 2027 rates the same as this year? If not, what are they?

I have Saturday $9,500, Friday $8,000, Sunday $7,000, weekdays $6,000. Correct me if that is stale.

PART SIX

INQUIRIES AND LOGINS

How a couple reaches you, and the keys I need to move things over.

22 What do you want to ask a couple on the inquiry form?

My starting list: date, guest count, name, email, phone, which farm, and how they found you. Add or cut anything.

23 Are you going ahead with Breeze, and roughly when?

If yes, I will build the forms so they hand off to it cleanly instead of redoing it later.

24 B12 login, and roughly what you pay them per month.

Send the login separately from this form if you would rather. The monthly figure is just so you can see what you stop paying.

25 GoDaddy login, and confirmation that both walkersoverlook.com and dulanysoverlook.com are on that account.

26 Instagram handles for each farm, your Zola listings, and whoever manages your Google Business Profile.

PART SEVEN

HAGERSTOWN

The third one. No rush on these, but they shape what I can plan for.

27 What is the venue called, and where is it?

28 How far along is the partnership, and when do you expect to announce it?

29 Does it already have a website, a logo, or photos of its own?

☐ Website ☐ Logo ☐ Photos ☐ None of it

30 Anything else on your mind about these sites that I have not asked?